

Legends of Rajathan

Submit Your Interest

Submit Your Interest

Submit Your Interest

Submit Your Interest

Business Sports Politics Films Music and Dance Science Miscellaneous

Miscellaneous

DP Sharma

D. P. Sharma (born 1 May 1969) is a computer scientist and disability rights activist from India. He was born in the village of Samona in the Rajakhera Tehsil of Rajasthan, India. In 2005, he created a work search engine for people with disabilities, which was later implemented by the Government of India's Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment. In March 2008, the search engine was featured on the cover of PCQuest's SMB version. The Prime Minister of India, Narendra Modi, appointed Sharma as National Brand Ambassador (Academicians and Youth) to the nation-wide initiative Swachh Bharat Mission (Clean India Drive) in 2017. In 2019, the Government of Rajasthan began the process of creating a Technical University in Jaipur, Rajasthan, based on Sharma's suggestion, to offer technology-enabled training, education, and recovery to people with disabilities. Sharma wrote or co-wrote 22 books, edited/reviewed numerous journal journals, and contributed labour editorials.

Justice RM Lodha

R.M Lodha was born on 28th September 1949 in Jodhpur, Rajasthan. In February 1973, he received his B.S.C. and LL.B. degrees from the University of Jodhpur and enrolled with the Rajasthan Bar Council. As a Special Counsel, he represented the Rajasthan High Court in important cases. On January 31, 1994, he was appointed as a Permanent Judge of the Rajasthan High Court. Whereas, On February 16, 1994, he was transferred to the Bombay High Court, where he assumed office. In successive years of his carrier, he got appointed as a chief justice of the nation.

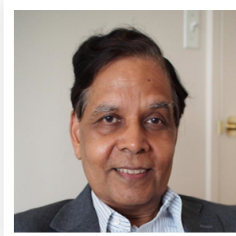

Vijay Shankar Vyas

Vijay Shankar Vyas was a well-known Indian agricultural economist. He was born on 21st August 1931 and left for heavenly abode on 12 September 2018. He was a Brahmin from Bikaner's Pushkarna community and the author of six novels. Vyas served as the Director of IIM Ahmedabad, IDS Jaipur, and the World Bank's Senior Advisor for Agriculture and Rural Development. Professor Vyas worked at the Institute of Development Studies in Jaipur as an Emeritus Professor. He was a member of the Reserve Bank of India's Central Board of Directors. In 2006, the Government of India bestowed the Padma Bhushan award upon Vyas.

Arvind Panagariya

Arvind Panagariya is an Indian-American economist and a professor of economics at Columbia University. From January 2015 to August 2017, he served as the first vice-chairman of the government of India think-tank NITI Aayog. Earlier he was the Asian Development Bank's Chief Economist. He was previously an economics professor at the University of Maryland at College Park. He has also worked for the World Bank, IMF, WTO, and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD). He graduated from Princeton University with a Ph.D. in economics. Panagariya is a prolific author who has published over 15 books and also awarded Padma Bhushan award.

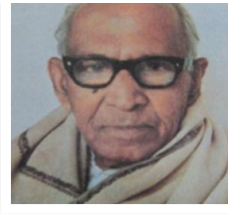

Piyush Pandey

Pandey was born in Jaipur in 1955 and represented Rajasthan in the Ranji Trophy. Pandey began his career at Ogilvy as an Account Director, but he was quickly recognised as someone of artistic talent, and he was transferred to the creative department. In 1994, Pandey was named to the board of directors. He is now the Chief Creative Officer Worldwide and the Executive Chairman India of Ogilvy Agency. In 2016, the Indian government bestowed upon him the civilian rank of Padma Shri. Under his leadership, Ogilvy India has been named the No. 1 Agency in the Agency Reckoner, an independent Marketing & Advertising Survey conducted by The Economic Times and Brand Equity, for 12 years in a row. At the 2002 Media Asia Awards, Pandey was named Asia's Creative Person of the Year. He is the only Indian to have won two gold medals at Cannes (for his Cancer Patients Association anti-smoking campaign) and three grand prizes at the London International Awards. O&M India won 25 lions at Cannes during Pandey's tenure. He received India's first Silver Pencil at The One Show Awards in 2002.

Mohan Singh Mehta

Mohan Singh Mehta was born on April 20, 1895, in Bhilwara, Rajasthan, to Jeewan Singh Mehta. Mehta earned a B.A. from Agra College in Agra in 1916, an M.A. (Economics) from Allahabad University in 1918, and L.L.B. and Ph.D. degrees from the London School of Economics in 1919 and 1921, respectively (1927). In 1927, he was admitted to the Middle Temple as a Barrister-at-Law. For distinguished service to the Mewar State Government between 1940 and 1945, he received awards and titles. Padma Vibhushan National Award (1969); William Trolley Award Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York (1969); Award of the Indian National Federation of UNESCO Associations (1979); Special Award of the Asian and South Pacific Bureau of Adult Education (1972); G.D. Parikh Memorial Award (1980); Honored by the Indian University Association for Continuing Education, New Delhi (1985).

Submit Your Interest

Maharaj Shree Nagendra Singh

Maharaj Sri Nagendra Singh was born on March 18, 1914, and died on December 11, 1988. He served as President of the International Court of Justice and was an Indian lawyer and administrator. He was one of four Indian judges who served on the International Court of Justice's (ICJ) in The Hague. He received his education at Ajmer's Mayo College. He is descended from a Rajput royal family. He entered the Indian Civil Service and served as a Regional Commissioner for the Eastern States, a member of India's Constituent Assembly, a joint secretary in the Defense Ministry, Director-General of Transport, and a special secretary in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting. He was also awarded the Padma Vibhushan award from the government of India.

Naresh Chandra

He was a 1956 batch IAS of Rajasthan cadre. He served as the Cabinet Secretary of India, the Defence Secretary of India, the Home Secretary of India, the Water Resources Secretary of India, and the Indian Ambassador to the United States. He was born on August 1, 1934, and passed away on July 9, 2017. In 2007, he was awarded the Padma Vibhushan, India's second highest civilian honour, for civil service.

Submit Your Interest

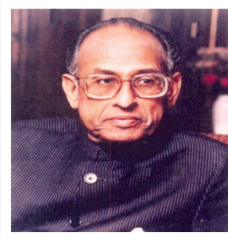

Jagat Singh Mehta

Jagat Singh Mehta (July 17, 1922 – March 6, 2014) was an Indian politician and diplomat who served as the country's Foreign Secretary. He was educated at Leighton Park School in England before attending Allahabad and Cambridge Universities. Before joining the IFS, he worked as an instructor at Allahabad University and as an officer in the Indian Navy. Mehta was rewarded by being made Associate at Harvard.

Laxmi Mall Singhvi

Laxmi Mall Singhvi was an Indian jurist, parliamentarian, academic, journalist, and diplomat who lived from 9 November 1931 to 6 October 2007. Singhvi graduated from Allahabad University with a gold medal in BA and went on to Jaipur University for LLB and MA. He was the first Rotary Scholar from Rajasthan to pursue his LLM at Harvard University. Singhvi was appointed High Commissioner to the Court of St. James by Prime Minister PV Narasimha Rao. The fact that he remained in office until 1997, unaffected by the brief terms of the next two Prime Ministers, speaks volumes about his integrity and professionalism. After VK Krishna Menon, he became the United Kingdom's second-longest-serving High Commissioner for India. He also served on The Hague's Permanent Court of Arbitration. Singhvi published a number of works in both English and Hindi. A Tale of Three Cities, Jain Temples, and Bharat aur Hamara Samay are among them. Dr. Singhvi received the Padma Bhushan award from the Indian government.

Submit Your Interest

Mukut Vehari Mathur

Mukut Vehari Mathur was an Indian economist and scholar who lived from 10 October 1915 to 1 January 2004. He was a scholar and economist from India. He served as the vice-chancellor of Rajasthan University and the founding chairman of the Institute of Development Studies, or IDS, in Jaipur. Mathur was Rajasthan University's Vice-Chancellor. He later rose through the ranks of the National Council of Applied Economic Research to become its Director General. Director of the National Institute of Education Planning and Administration in the end. From 1981 to 1987, he served as the first chairman of the IDS and was a member of the Fourth Pay Commission, Third Finance Commission, Education Commission, and Plantation Inquiry Commission of the Central Government. Mathur received the Padma Bhushan award in 1989 for his contribution to economic science. He had previously received the Parikh Memorial Award in 1983 and the Rajasthan Ratna Award from the Rajasthan government in 1984.

Bhogilal Pandya

Bhogilal Pandya was born in Simalwara village of Dungarpur district, Rajasthan on 13 November 1904. He was a social worker and freedom fighter from Dungarpur, Rajasthan, India. For his social works, the Indian government awarded him the Padma

Submit Your Interest

Bhushan on April 3, 1976. Pandya was elected President of Seva-sangh, a community service organisation in Rajasthan's Dungarpur, Udaipur, Jaipur, and Jaisalmar regions, in 1938.

NODAL OFFICER

Mr. Amit Kumar Singhal
Manager

📍 Rajasthan Foundation, Yojana Bhawan
Yudhishter Marg, C-Scheme, Jaipur-302005

📞 9602779277

📞 01412229091

✉️ rajfound-rij[at]nic[dot]in

WEBSITE VISITORS

Last Updated
15/12/2022

Website Visitors
14719

QUICK LINKS

Madad MEA

CMO Website

Rajasthan Tourism

State Portal, Rajasthan